Dining Divas Make Their Golden Carpet Debut

Dining Divas California, the newest chapter of the Dining Divas Empire, made a dazzling entrance with the Golden Carpet Premiere, celebrating a fusion of fine dining, luxury, and entertainment. This highly anticipated expansion continues the legacy of Dining Divas Florida, New York, Texas, and the travel series, Destination Divas, bringing high-energy culinary and lifestyle experiences to the West Coast.

Founded by Christine Curran, the Dining Divas Empire is more than just a dining show—it's a lifestyle experience where fashion, food, and fabulous women come together to highlight the best in hospitality, business, and entertainment.

The Dining Divas brand has captivated audiences with its award-winning shows, featuring exclusive dining experiences, celebrity guests, and high-profile events. Having aired on Travel Channel, WeTV, and now making its way to Amazon Prime, Apple TV, Google TV, Peacock, and the Dining Empire app, the franchise continues to expand its reach, delivering unparalleled food and entertainment content.

Their presence at The Golden Gala highlighted their growing impact in the industry and their commitment to uplifting women through shared experiences, leadership, and community engagement.

Better Vision for Children: A Mission of Sight & Hope

Better Vision for Children (BVC), a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, is dedicated to improving the lives of children through vision health programs, education, and mentorship. Under the leadership of James Zuley, the organization has expanded its impact nationwide, ensuring that children receive access to early vision screenings, treatment, and the necessary resources to succeed.

BVC focuses on two core initiatives:

- Ensuring Healthy Eyesight – Increasing awareness about vision health, supporting research, and funding early vision screenings for children.
- Empowering Foster & Underprivileged Children – Providing mentorship, scholarships, and life-skills training to youth in underserved communities.
