The Philippines' largest carrier, Cebu Pacific

indulging in the flavors of home once again. They can savor Iloilo's fresh tinuom (native chicken souped with spices and wrapped in banana leaves), enjoy Cebu's crispy danggit (sun-dried rabbitfish), or delight in Davao's tropical fruits like durian and pomelo. Beyond these shared meals, families can create new memories together while exploring the region's stunning islands and diverse natural parks.

CEB flew its maiden voyage from Manila to Cebu on March 8, 1996. Since then, the airline has flown over 250 million passengers across its widest Philippine and international network as it continues to offer affordable and accessible flights.

In 2013, CEB also launched its maiden flight from Manila to Dubai, marking its entry into the long-haul market and giving more Filipinos easier access to the Middle East.

CEB operates in 37 domestic and 26 international destinations spread across Asia, Australia, and the Middle East.

CEB offers multiple payment options, including credit and debit cards, as well as e-wallets, for booking flights and purchasing add-ons.
