

Laura Bianchi Discussed Effective Cannabis Investing at Turnaround Management Association Conference in Las Vegas

The co-founding partner of law firm Bianchi and Brandt shared expertise on strategic and responsible cannabis investing.

PHOENIX , AZ, UNITED STATES, March 6, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Attorney Laura Bianchi, co-founding partner of Bianchi & Brandt, was an invited speaker at the 2025 Turnaround Management Association (TMA) Distressed Investing Conference that took place February 11–14, 2025 at the Wynn Las Vegas.

Bianchi participated in a panel discussion titled “High Risk, High Reward: Cannabis Deals in 2025,” on Thursday, February 13. The session explored the difficulties and opportunities within cannabis-related investments, a rapidly evolving industry known for its challenges and high-growth potential.

“The cannabis industry continues to present opportunities for investors who are prepared to navigate its regulatory and operational hurdles,” said Bianchi. “I enjoyed sharing my thoughts on approaching these deals strategically and responsibly.”

Laura Bianchi has been recognized among the “Top 100 Attorneys in Arizona” and “30 Most Powerful Women in Arizona Cannabis” by AZ Big Media. Her expertise has also been featured in national media outlets including Forbes, Bloomberg, Benzinga and O Magazine.

According to Research and Markets, the global legal cannabis market was valued at $26.32 billion in 2023 and is projected to reach between $102 billion and $143.78 billion by 2030. This expansion, driven by a 25.7% compound annual growth rate (CAGR), is fueled by factors such as increasing legalization, rising demand for medical and recreational cannabis, and the expanding
