/EINPresswire.com/ -- Dr Dave Richards of Natural Smile Dental St Heliers has recently expanded his cosmetic treatments, providing Auckland with comprehensive services to enhance their smiles. The demand for cosmetic treatments has increased in recent years as more people use social media and want to keep up with beauty trends. Dr Dave Richards offers natural-looking smile makeovers, helping his patients feel confident about their teeth without compromising on long-term dental health.

"We'll take a holistic view of your dental issues and propose a treatment plan that addresses everything. You may only need one kind of treatment, or a combination of cosmetic, corrective, and restorative techniques, but you can be confident that the result will be a beautiful, white, even smile you'll love to show off," a company spokesperson said.

According to MD Monthly, crooked teeth can affect close to every aspect of a person's life, as many feel self-conscious about showing their teeth. Aside from avoiding smiling, crooked teeth can cause a person to isolate themselves, avoid having conversations, and develop social anxiety, underlining how cosmetic treatments can improve a patient's quality of life.

Depending on the type of damage or misalignment, Dr Dave Richards may suggest starting with a corrective treatment. The dentist offers Invisalign treatment for less severe cases as well as traditional metal braces for those with bigger issues. For additional details about the clinic, please go to:

The clinic utilises the latest technology for optimal results and comfort. For example, Zoom! Whitespeed that lightens teeth up to eight shades in 45 minutes, and Cerec 3D Instant Teeth, a same-day solution for crown fitting. Other treatments available for Hollywood smile makeovers include veneers, composite fillings, and dentures.

A patient shared their testimonial: "Dave and his team are fantastic, and I am really happy with Dave's work on my teeth. I've waited 33 years to be able to smile properly again, and now I can, thanks to the Natural Smile team!"
