

Local City Places Launches $CASH$BATES$: A Game-Changing Cash-Back Program That Rewards Everyday Shopping

$CASH$BATES$ allows consumers to submit receipts from any local business

CHANDLER, AZ, UNITED STATES, March 7, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Local City Places, led by Founder and CEO Troy Warren, has announced the launch of \$CASH\$BATES\$, a revolutionary cash-back loyalty program that rewards consumers for their everyday shopping, without the usual restrictions found in traditional rewards programs.

Unlike conventional cash-back programs that require consumers to purchase specific products at specific stores on specific days (often only to receive a gift card they may never use), $CASH$BATES$ offers real cash rewards for purchases people are already making in their local communities.

How It Works

With $CASH$BATES$, you receive real cash that you can spend however you choose"

Troy Warren

$CASH$BATES$ allows consumers to submit receipts from any local business...including restaurants, grocery stores, gas stations, dry cleaners, and more...to earn up to $35 per month in cash rewards. There are no hoops to jump through, no product limitations, and no store restrictions, just simple cash-back for supporting local businesses.

“What’s even better is that you’re not limited to a gift card for a store you don’t use,” said Warren. “With $CASH$BATES$, you receive real cash that you can spend however you choose.”

The First Cash-Back Program That Pays You for Referrals

Beyond individual rewards, $CASH$BATES$ introduces an industry-first referral model. Users who refer friends, family, or business associates can earn a percentage of all receipts submitted by their referrals, up to four tiers deep. This unique structure allows participants to multiply their earnings simply by sharing the program with others.

A Seamless, Hassle-Free Experience

With the $CASH$BATES$ app, consumers can easily scan and submit receipts from their everyday purchases. Once approved, they receive 10% cash-back on their qualified receipt totals.

Designed for Everyday Consumers & Local Businesses

$CASH$BATES$ is a win-win: consumers receive real cash-back, while local merchants and manufacturers gain loyal customers without needing to offer deep discounts or restrictive promotions.

“The beauty of $CASH$BATES$ is that it rewards people for what they’re already doing, shopping at their favorite local businesses,” Warren explained. “It’s not about changing spending habits. It’s about getting rewarded for everyday purchases.”
