“We are thrilled to welcome Charlie to Family Hospice,” said Mark Kimsey, chairman of the board and founder of Family Hospice. “His proven track record of leadership, team development, and strategic growth will be instrumental as we continue to expand our mission of providing compassionate, high-quality hospice care to the communities we serve.”

Throughout his career, Hall has demonstrated a strong ability to lead large teams, optimize sales operations, and implement effective marketing campaigns. His leadership will be pivotal in strengthening Family Hospice’s commitment to excellence in end-of-life care while fostering innovation and operational efficiency.

“I am honored to join Family Hospice and to work alongside such a skilled and dedicated team,” said Hall. “The need for hospice care is universal; we all experience the passing of a family member. Providing compassionate, high-quality hospice care is more important than ever. I look forward to leading the organization in its continued growth and impact within the families and communities we serve.”

Hall graduated with honors from the United States Military Academy in West Point, New York, with a Bachelor of Science in Organizational Leadership and Systems Engineering. A scholar-athlete, he was a four-year member of the judo team. Hall served as an officer in the United States Army and was deployed to Southeast Asia.

Hall most recently served as chief operating officer at Rezolut LLC, where he successfully led a high-growth healthcare platform, spearheading initiatives that enhanced efficiency, profitability, and patient care. His expertise in integrating acquisitions, launching new services, and building strong sales and marketing strategies positioned him as a transformative leader in the healthcare industry.

Family Hospice remains committed to delivering exceptional care to patients and their families, and under Hall's leadership, the organization looks forward to expanding its reach, enhancing its services, and continuing its mission for years to come.
