

Performing Arts at Fawn Lake (PAFL) Facilities and Reception Impresses Performers

SPOTSYLVANIA, VA, UNITED STATES, March 12, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On February 21, 2025, Performing Arts at Fawn Lake (PAFL) hosted clarinetist Pascual Martinez-Forteza and pianist Gema Nieto-Forteza for the 13th performance staged by PAFL. The professional duo of clarinet and piano (clarinet from the New York Philharmonic Orchestra) played Spanish classical music and music from Leonard Bernstein. Their daughter, Patricia, an NYU opera major, sang selections from West Side Story. The concert was an extraordinary event with terrific and personable performers.

"We were overwhelmed with how graciously we were received when we arrived in Fawn Lake. And what a beautiful community! Our hosts opened their home and their hearts to me, Pascual, and our children. We truly felt like we were visiting old friends." said Gema Nieto-Forteza.

Pascual Martinez-Forteza added "Fawn Lake is so fortunate to have such an excellent environment for musical performances. Your community center has excellent acoustics. As a clarinetist, I was very aware of how well the sound our instruments carried to the audience. It was perfect!"
