Tallie Spencer and Scottie

Since its inception, SBRBN has built a highly engaged community by spotlighting the best in LA's nightlife, food, fashion, music, and entrepreneurial scenes. Now, the platform is bringing that same energy to a new format, offering listeners insightful conversations, trend analysis, and exclusive guest appearances from some of the city's most influential figures.

"We've built SBRBN as a space where people can discover what's happening in LA, and now with the podcast, we get to take that to another level," says Scottie. "This is more than just a show. It's a conversation about the culture, the people, and the stories that make LA what it is."

Co-host Tallie adds, "LA is always evolving, and The SBRBN Podcast is here to document and discuss it all. Whether it's the hottest new restaurant, an emerging artist, or a major cultural shift, we're tapping in and bringing our audience with us."

New episodes of The SBRBN Podcast will drop weekly, available on YouTube (@TheSbrbn). Listeners can expect candid discussions, guest features, and deep dives into the city's changing landscape.
