

Lifted Lollies: A Sweet Twist on THC Lollipops, Now Available at The Hemp Doctor

The Hemp Doctor, an official distributor of Lifted Lollies, offers these 2:1 Delta 9 to CBD THC lollipops in 5 flavors. Available online & in NC stores.

MOORESVILLE, NC, UNITED STATES, March 11, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lifted Lollies, a 2:1 Delta 9 to CBD adult sucker, is now available at The Hemp Doctor online and physical stores. Each lolly contains a blend of 20mg of Delta 9 and 10mg of CBD. Available in single or five-pack, Lifted Lollies are sold in five mouthwatering flavors: Grape, Mango, Pineapple, Watermelon, and Sour Apple.

Each 10-gram Lifted Lolly offers a balanced effect that unfolds gradually. No need to bite down or rush. The effects scale naturally with every lick.

We wanted to carry something our customers find fun, flavorful, and effective—a treat that delivers a consistent and enjoyable experience every time. Lifted Lollies checks all the boxes.”

Robert Shade, Founder of The Hemp Doctor

While The Hemp Doctor is known for its premium hemp-derived products, it is proud to offer Lifted Lollies as a trusted distributor.

These lollipops don't just deliver a balanced buzz—they also pack a punch in the taste department. Lifted Lollies come in five irresistible fruit flavors for single-size and five flavors for the five-pack option:

Grape – A deep, sweet & sour classic.

Mango – A tropical twist of smooth and sweet.

Pineapple – A bold burst of tart golden sunshine.

Watermelon – A refreshing summer vibe in every lick.

Sour Apple – A tangy, tart kick with a crisp finish.

Lifted Lollies are more than just a sweet treat—they offer a semi-sober wellness experience for users to ease into relaxation, creativity, or social enjoyment at their own pace.

These cannabinoid-infused adult suckers are formulated “full-spectrum” style. Meaning they include minor cannabinoids along with THC and CBD. The combination of THC and CBD offers a more balanced, well-rounded effect, with THC delivering euphoria and CBD softening the intensity for a calming touch.

A 5-count bag contains a total of 150mg (100mg Delta-9 THC + 50mg CBD) and a single sucker will each have 30mg (20mg of Delta-9 + 10mg of CBD).

The Lifted Lollies are made with 100% natural oils, hemp-derived distillate, and pure terpenes. These lollipops are free from cutting agents, residual solvents, fertilizers, or pesticides—just premium, clean ingredients.

All crafted in USA-certified GMP facilities, the third-party cannabis testing laboratory, Kaycha Labs, “passed” all five Lifted Lollies flavors from pesticides, heavy metals, microbials, mycotoxins, residual solvents, and filth.

The Lifted Lollies are only available exclusively to customers 21 years and older. Aside from The Hemp Doctor’s online store, people visiting nearby can buy from the company’s stores in Huntersville, Mooresville, and Concord, North Carolina.

(Note: Lifted Lollies are federally compliant under the 2018 Farm Bill, containing no more than 0.3% Delta-9 THC per dry weight.)
