

Koniag Government Services Announces Joanie Barr as Senior Vice President of Business Operations

CHANTILLY, VA, UNITED STATES, March 11, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Koniag Government Services (KGS) has hired Joanie Barr as Senior Vice President of Business Operations, reporting directly to the Chief Business Operations Officer. Barr's 30+ years of success as a leader in the GovCon market is foundational to harnessing and articulating KGS solutions and capabilities as they evolve.

"Joanie's expertise in a broad range of corporate functions is critical for this new role at KGS," said Aisha McGill, Chief Business Operations Officer. "Her proven record of shaping and leading corporate strategies and collaborating effectively across internal organizations and with employees, partners, and customers will contribute to KGS' continued growth and the exceptional value that we provide to our customers."

Over her career, Barr has served in key growth, technology and operational leadership roles, most recently serving as Chief Technology Officer. In this new role, Barr will collaborate closely across KGS departments including Operations, Growth, and Proposals, and provide direct oversight of KGS Marketing and Communications. "KGS has experienced aggressive growth and has made significant contributions to our customers' missions." Barr said. "I look forward to supporting the company's continued success and the expansion and evolution of KGS capabilities."
