

SCI-FI TREASURES FROM THE BIG SCREEN TO BE SOLD IN LOS ANGELES AUCTION THIS MONTH

Among the incredible lots for sale, there will be a fantastic selection of sci-fi items from Star Trek, Back to the Future, Ghostbusters, Blade Runner & more.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, March 11, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Propstore's Entertainment Memorabilia Live Auction, taking place from March 26 - 28, 2025 in Los Angeles, will feature over 1,350 rare and screen-used props, costumes, and collectibles from some of cinema's best loved films and television shows, with an estimated total value of $8 million. Among the incredible lots up for sale, there will be a fantastic selection of sci-fi lots, including items from Star Trek, Back to the Future, Ghostbusters, and Blade Runner, giving fans the chance to own a piece of their favourite sci-fi classics!

Screen-Matched Light-Up Radio-Controlled Hero Ghost Trap and Pedal est. $150,000 - $300,000

HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE:

- Ghostbusters fans have the chance to own the Screen-Matched, Light-Up, Radio-Controlled Hero Ghost Trap and Pedal from Ghostbusters (1984) and Ghostbusters II (1989). Used by the Ghostbusters team to capture supernatural entities, this iconic prop is one of the franchise's most recognisable pieces, with a pre-sale estimate of $150,000 - $300,000.
- Back to the Future collectors can get their hands on the Screen-Matched "A" (Hero) Car DeLorean Time Machine's Mr. Fusion Reactor from Back to the Future Part II (1989). A key component of Doc Brown's time machine, this device converted household waste into energy, allowing the DeLorean to journey through time. This legendary piece of sci-fi history is estimated at $75,000 - $150,000.

- There are some incredible lots from 90s sci-fi classics, including the Screen-Matched Light-Up Zorg Industries "Rocket Launcher" ZF-1 from The Fifth Element (1997). Wielded by Gary Oldman's villainous Zorg, this futuristic weapon is estimated between $60,000 - $120,000.

The auction showcases some incredible lots for Star Trek fans, including a Light-Up Husnock Starship Model Miniature from Star Trek: The Next Generation (est. $40,000 to $80,000) and a "Live Long and Prosper" pendant modelled after Leonard Nimoy's iconic Vulcan salute. This pendant is one of only ten that travelled to space aboard a Blue Origin flight - one of which was recently gifted to science icon Bill Nye. As the first ever made available to the public, it is estimated at $20,000 to $40,000. Proceeds from this lot and five others will benefit the Leonard Nimoy Memorial at the Museum of Science in Boston and support COPD research at UCLA.

The three-day Entertainment Memorabilia Live Auction will begin at 10:30 AM PDT / 5:30 PM GMT each day, with in-person bidding available at The Petersen Automotive Museum in Los Angeles. Global online, absentee and telephone bids will be accepted throughout the event.

About Propstore

In 1998, Propstore founder Stephen Lane's love for movies led him to hunt for the same props and costumes used to create his favorite films. He found that he could provide collectors with access to their most coveted pieces and establish archival standards for this new, pop-culture hybrid of fine art and memorabilia collecting - prop art.

Since 2014, Propstore has regularly hosted live auctions featuring some of the world's greatest Entertainment Memorabilia treasures. Propstore specializes in film and television props and costumes, production materials, and artwork, as well as music memorabilia, posters, and collectible toys. Propstore also holds regular online auctions in association with many of the industry's major production materials and has over 5,000 items available for sale via Buy Now on www.propstore.com.
