

World-Record Breaking Team Collaborates for Disabled Star's First Feature Film Role

Award-Winning Director Showcases Remarkable Story of Disabled Performer's Triumph Over Adversity, Encourages Audiences to Sign Up for Exclusive Free Documentary

MELBOURNE, AUSTRALIA, March 11, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Disabled performer Pekka Luodeslampi—once unable to get out of bed due to a central nervous system disorder and now a world-renowned social media star—is the focus of an upcoming groundbreaking independent film titled “We Don't Say Retard Anymore”.

Despite extraordinary health challenges, Pekka “Y-Man” Luodeslampi, has triumphed to become a three-time Guinness World Record holder and a social media sensation with over 100 million views. The film—directed by Tez Frost, an award-winning Australian filmmaker and Disney alum—is scheduled for an anticipated world release on March 22nd 2025. In the lead-up to the release, fans are invited to sign up for free to access exclusive content, including a special behind-the-scenes documentary.

“Pekka’s journey is nothing short of awe-inspiring,” says Tez Frost, who also set a Guinness World Record with a previous film. “His undying faith, resilience, and ability to connect with millions worldwide deserve the spotlight, and this film is a tribute to overcoming obstacles—physically, spiritually, and creatively.”

Key Highlights:

- Pekka’s Incredible Story: Overcoming a life-altering disorder, amassing millions of online fans, and earning three Guinness World Records.
- Faith-Based Focus: The film offers an uplifting message of hope, grounded in Pekka’s devout
