

Caught in the Crossfire Unveils a Deadly Betrayal on the Battlefield

PACIFIC, MO, UNITED STATES, March 11, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Stephen Dugan is excited to announce the release of Caught in the Crossfire, a gripping new military thriller that will leave readers on the edge of their seats. This intense and emotionally charged story takes readers into the heart of Afghanistan, where bonds of trust are tested under the most dangerous conditions.

In Caught in the Crossfire, Specialist Paul Evans and his unit are stationed in the volatile Khost Province. As they face relentless ambushes and mounting suspicion, Evans must uncover the truth about a possible traitor in their ranks. At the same time, NSA analyst Jean Roberts intercepts chilling communications between a Taliban commander and an informant, uncovering a conspiracy that threatens the lives of countless soldiers.

As Evans fights for survival on the battlefield and Jean works from thousands of miles away to unravel the web of deception, their worlds collide in a nail-biting race against time. With its authentic military detail and emotional depth, Caught in the Crossfire is a story of courage, loyalty, and the heavy cost of betrayal.
