The transactions deepen the tech-focused investment bank's experience in the Canadian Software space

OTTAWA, ONTARIO, CANADA, March 12, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sampford Advisors, a

We are pleased to announce these transactions, expanding our domain expertise into natural resource management, and solidifying our position as the #1 mid-market Software M&A advisory firm in Canada”

Mitch Robinson, Managing Director, Sampford

boutique investment bank focused exclusively on mid-market mergers and acquisitions for technology, media and telecom (TMT) companies, acted as the exclusive financial advisor to Remsoft on receiving strategic investment from private equity firm Banneker Partners, and on its acquisition of Lim Geomatics.

Headquartered in Fredericton, New Brunswick, Remsoft is an intelligence software leader that helps organizations in forestry and natural resource industries plan and optimize their supply chain with precision, act with confidence and adapt to change. The investment from Banneker Partners strengthens Remsoft's ability to scale, accelerate innovation, and deliver high-value solutions that help forestry organizations improve profitability and enhance sustainability.

Lim Geomatics is a forestry software innovator specializing in geospatial and operational analytics based in Ottawa, Ontario. The strategic acquisition expands the Remsoft platform with geospatial intelligence, LiDAR, and forest machine telematics capabilities that deepen insights into forest operations.

Sampford Advisors is pleased to have worked closely with Remsoft, Banneker Partners, and Lim Geomatics, as well as their third-party advisors, in order to reach a successful close to the transaction.
