WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, March 12, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Eden Gordon Media and NewsTalk 105.9 FM, WMAL's "The All-American Book Club," will celebrate women of faith in honor of Women's History Month. In a confusing culture often distracted by labels, these women of faith embrace their God-given femininity and powerfully work to bring more of God's light, truth, and love into the world. These women include Dr. Pamela Pyle, Sarah Makin, Dr. Susan Michael, İşik Abła Ministries, Dani Pettrey, and Eden Gordon Hill.

"With nearly three decades of public service, I have been privileged to work with women of faith who use their voices to serve and impact the future of America. It's a true honor to walk alongside the women represented here. They are trailblazers carving out new territory for the next generation of female leaders," said Eden Gordon Hill.

"Today and every day, America's daughters ignite the dreams and develop the character of our next generation. Their contributions to America's excellence are worthy of praise and recognition, now and forever," wrote President Donald J. Trump in his proclamation celebrating Women's History Month in 2025.

Dr. Susan Michael, International Christian Embassy Jerusalem, USA PRESIDENT

It's a true honor to walk alongside the women represented here. They are trailblazers carving out new territory for the next generation of female leaders.”

Dr. Susan Michael has spent more than 35 years pioneering the development of the ICEJ in the United States and around the world. In recent years she has produced educational tools to enable Christians to handle delicate topics central to an understanding of Israel. She has built the U.S. Branch of the ICEJ into a scripturally sound ministry which is evidenced in the leadership of one of the strongest networks of Evangelical leaders in America – the American Christian Leaders for Israel (ACLI).

She recently joined other leaders at the National Religious Broadcasters Convention in Dallas, Texas to celebrate ACLI's 10th anniversary with a historic resolution reaffirming the Jewish people's inalienable right to Judea and Samaria. Dr. Susan Michael recalled the founding story of ACLI on January 20, 2015 as a pivotal moment unfolded in Washington, D.C. President Barack Obama pursued a controversial nuclear deal with Iran. A group of 12 Christian leaders met to share their deep concerns over the existential threat posed by a potentially nuclear-armed Iran.

Dr. Susan Michael said, “No single voice is loud enough to speak on behalf of 70 million Christians in America. But when we unite, we can represent the voice of millions, speaking to them and for them.”

Işık Abla, President, and CEO, Işık Abla Ministries (IAM)

Işık Abla, a global beacon of hope and empowerment, is a visionary founder, president, and CEO who was born in Turkey, raised as a Muslim, and fled to America. Abla's latest opinion article in the Daily Wire, America Can't Ignore The Warning Signs of Radicalization, writes, “I spent years brainwashed by radical Islam. Now, I see the same toxic poison seeping into the West. There was a time in my life when I lived in the shadow of terror — not just as a distant observer, but as someone who felt its grip firsthand ... And yet, by God’s grace, I escaped. I ran from that life and stepped onto foreign soil, hoping to leave the nightmare behind. But the nightmare was not confined to one land, it has followed me. It has followed us all.” Coming this April 2025, the “Broken Silence” Podcast with Anne Beiler and Işık Abla.
