

Identity Theft: A Growing Concern for US Consumers

RENO, NV, UNITED STATES, March 14, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Over the past two years, an alarming increase in identity theft complaints has been reported by the Federal Trade reported over 1 million identity theft complaints, resulting in losses of over $10 billion. In 2024, the FTC reported 1.4 million cases of identity theft complaints out of the 5.7 million fraud complaints made in that year. This increase in reported fraud incidents signifies a growing need for individuals and companies to be aware of this issue.

Commission (FTC). In 2023, the FTC

Identity theft goes beyond just being a financial burden; it's a personal crisis that can affect victims' lives in every capacity.”
