Malatya Apricot

A Naturally Nutritious Delicacy

Natural dried apricots from Malatya are renowned for their rich taste and exceptional nutritional value. Unlike sulfur-treated dried apricots, these are dried naturally under the sun without any preservatives or additives. As a result, they develop a darker color and an intense, naturally sweet flavor. natural dried apricots are a valuable source of fiber, antioxidants, and essential minerals such as potassium and iron, making them a nutritious addition to a balanced diet.

Traditional and Sustainable Production Process

The production of Malatya's natural sun-dried apricots follows a meticulous process to preserve quality and authenticity:

1. Harvesting – Apricots are carefully handpicked at peak ripeness to ensure maximum sweetness and nutritional content.
2. Pitting – The fruits are gently pitted, maintaining their shape and quality.
3. Sun-Drying – Pitted apricots are naturally dried under the sun, free from sulfur or artificial preservatives.
4. Sorting and Grading – Once dried, they are classified based on size, texture, and quality according to international standards.
5. Packaging – The apricots are hygienically packed to retain freshness and ensure safe transportation to global markets.

Global Demand for Malatya Apricots

With the rising preference for natural and chemical-free food products, Malatya's natural dried apricots are gaining popularity worldwide. They are widely used in various cuisines and as a healthy snack alternative. The region's commitment to quality ensures that its dried apricots meet international food safety standards and appeal to health-conscious consumers across Europe, North America, the Middle East, and Asia.
