Information, Registration and Sponsorship Details – southseas.com/tarpon

“We were successful in raising $200,000 in last year’s tournament, which is equivalent to 40 scholarships,” says South Seas General Manager, Shawn Farrell. “Providing a world-class fishing tournament that combines a spirit of competition with a sense of community, creating an unforgettable experience for everyone involved while raising awareness and support for the Folds of Honor Scholarship Fund has been amazing. We look forward to this year’s tournament and building on the accomplishment of the inaugural event last year.”

Teams of four people can enter the tournament for an entry fee of $1,000 per team, with only one captain per team. All monies collected from Tarpon Tournament entry fees are paid to the winners of the tournament. All of the proceeds from the Kids Fishing Tournament, Captain’s Meeting at Redfish Grill, Feed the Fish Golf Ball Drive, Patriotic Tee Shirt Dye, and Kids Fishing Tournament are given to Folds of Honor.

A variety of sponsorship opportunities offering premium benefits, including one tournament entry, recognition in all marketing materials, in-resort signage, press releases, and a dedicated table for at the Tournament Awards Dinner. Inquiries can be directed to tarpon@southseas.com.

Memorial Day weekend, including honor guard, paratroopers, live music, military and first responder vehicles, face painting, a bounce house, Kona Ice and food trucks by booking through SouthSeas.com.

Only 45 minutes, yet a world away, Captiva Island is connected to Florida's mainland via Sanibel Causeway and a small bridge over Blind Pass, joining it to Sanibel Island. Tucked away at the northern end of the five-mile long, one-half-mile wide Captiva Island, South Seas is between Pine Island Sound and the Gulf of Mexico, ensconced by two-and-a-half miles of powder-white beaches lapped by turquoise tides. The resort offers a range of accommodations of varying types, each steps from the Gulf of Mexico including beach villas, marina villas, tennis villas and beach homes are now available for reservations.
