

World Masters Athletics to Host Its First-Ever Indoor Track and Field Championship in the USA

MONTE CARLO, MONACO, March 13, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Monaco, March 13, 2025 – Masters athletes from nearly 100 countries are preparing to compete at the World Masters Athletics (WMA) Indoor Track & Field Championships, set to take place in Alachua County, Florida, from March 23-30, 2025. With approximately 4,000 participants, including athletes, officials, volunteers, and spectators, the event promises to be a spectacular showcase of athletic excellence. “Come join the celebration! Be inspired by the incredible performances of athletes aged 35 and older as they push their limits, chase lifelong dreams, break world records, and compete for the medals that hold the highest significance in masters athletics,” says Margit Jungmann, WMA President.

Championship Highlights

- Olympic-Caliber Competition – The event will feature 26 former Olympians, 68 WMA World Record Holders, and multiple WMA Best Athletes of the Year.
- Meet the WMA Ambassadors – Ten WMA Ambassadors will engage with fans at special events, made possible by Karhu USA, the championship’s exclusive clothing sponsor.
- Engaging Fan Experiences – Spectators will have opportunities to interact with WMA Ambassadors through style vignettes held throughout the week. The full event schedule will be available at wmaci2025.com.
