A powerful beat by Boger sets the tone for me and Really Jaewon to spell out the ways that we are creating our own legacies and how our differing starting points put us on the same trajectory.”

The track has already gained massive traction, debuting at #1 on multiple independent Spotify and Deezer playlists and receiving incredible support from curators across the world. Hip-hop and Rap music fans will appreciate the raw, authentic energy, blending sharp lyricism with street-honed authenticity.

"War & Glory" delivers a raw and unfiltered perspective on each artist's journey. SUMiT, an independent artist carving his path, and Really Jae'Won, carrying the weight of his father's legendary status, bring their distinct experiences to the track, united by their relentless drive.

"A powerful beat by Boger sets the tone for me and Really Jae'Won to spell out the ways that we are creating our own legacies and how our differing starting points put us on the same trajectory," says SUMiT. "Him being the son of a rap legend and me being an artist trying to break into the industry, we are both determined to carve out our own paths. The hook suggests that there is not only more to our backstories but also more left to be written."

The track's gripping lyrics paint a vivid picture of struggle and triumph:

"The war and the glory

Peace to all the soldiers who've fallen before me

Wrote it on the wall they were stored in the flooring

Holding onto morals

There's more to the story"

SUMiT and Really Jae'Won trade bars effortlessly, showcasing their skill, hunger, and respect for hip-hop's legacy. "War & Glory" is available now on all major streaming platforms.
