

Dr. Krishnan Suthanthiran Recognizes 15 ACRO BEST Award Recipients, Sponsored by ISTRO/BCF, at 2025 ACRO Summit

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, March 14, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- At the American College of Radiation Oncology annual meeting in Las Vegas, Nevada, on March 14, 2025, the International Society of Therapeutic Radiology & Oncology (ISTRO), through the Best Cure Foundation (BCF), recognized 15 radiation oncology residents including medical students for their exceptional work in the field of radiation oncology. Dr. Krishnan Suthanthiran, President and Founder of TeamBest Global Companies and Best Cure Foundation, recognized the recipients with a plaque and a check in the amount of 500 USD.

ISTRO has a clear mission: to promote transparency in the field of oncology by educating the public, medical and insurance professionals, and government officials and elected members. To achieve this, ISTRO intends to organize conferences and technical exhibits that showcase the latest breakthroughs in the field of oncology and medicine. Furthermore, ISTRO is seeking to collaborate with various professional medical societies to recognize over 100 individuals each year who have made remarkable contributions to the field.

"We are pleased to recognize the efforts and contributions of this year's recipients of the 2025 ACRO BEST Award. Congratulations to all," stated Dr. Suthanthiran. Suthanthiran is a healthcare professional who has devoted more than half a century to cheering, helping, and saving lives every day. Cardiovascular Research Technologies (CRT) recently honored Suthanthiran with a lifetime achievement award in recognition of his exceptional commitment to advancing and advocating in the field of brachytherapy, including vascular brachytherapy. A pioneer and inventor, he has collaborated with numerous leaders in this field (including vascular brachytherapy), saving tens of thousands of lives. Through his non-profit BCF, Suthanthiran plans to establish the first Best Cure non-profit, Pro Health Center and Medical Center, in the suburbs of Pittsburgh, PA. The Pro Health Centers will be non-profit proactive, preventive, primary medical, dental, and eye care wellness centers. BCF also plans to establish BCF Medical Centers for Treatment (similarly non-profit), which will focus on all diseases as specialty medical centers and all centers operating 24/7.
