CONFERENCE

Autism in Black Conference Logo

This one-of-a-kind event is the only conference dedicated to centering Black autistic voices while providing families, professionals, and advocates with culturally responsive resources, education, and community support. With this year's theme, "Building Community, Embracing Connection," the conference aims to bridge gaps in representation, advocacy, and access to services for Black autistic individuals and their families.

What to Expect at This Year's Conference:

- Expert-Led Sessions – Learn from Black autistic advocates, therapists, educators, and professionals.
- Networking & Community Building – Connect with others who understand your journey.
- CEUs for Professionals – Earn continuing education units while gaining culturally responsive autism training.
- Vendor Marketplace – Explore businesses and organizations offering autism-related products and services.
- Hybrid Access – Attend in person or virtually from anywhere in the world.

Who Should Attend?

This conference is designed for:

- Black parents raising autistic children
- Black autistic individuals
- Caregivers & family members

- Educators, therapists, and medical professionals
- Advocates & community leaders
