Released in 1997 and made globally famous in the early 2000s, "Mundian To Bach Ke" is one of the most recognizable Punjabi tracks, blending traditional bhangra beats with modern electronic music. The song became an international sensation, introducing Punjabi music to audiences worldwide.

For this chapter of "Music Unites the World," HAUSER reimagines "Mundian To Bach Ke" on the cello, adding a unique classical element to its energetic rhythm while maintaining the song's signature intensity.

“I want to prove, once and for all, that music connects and unites every nation, every culture, and every person on this planet. That’s why I decided to play one song from every single country. The project won’t stop until I’ve played a song from every corner of the world. Now, let’s see which nation is the loudest, the wildest, the proudest!” – HAUSER
