classes, the school caters to individual learning needs with small-sized classes and private lessons. Accepting students globally, AOJ provides cost-effective learning with affordable tuition, attracting over 120 students from 30 countries in its third year. In the upcoming Spring 2025 semester, classes for all levels (N5-N1) are available, featuring both Japanese video lessons and 90-minute live lessons led by qualified Japanese teachers. Video contents are accessible in English, Chinese, Vietnamese and Portuguese.

The banner features the AOJ Language School logo at the top left. A pink banner asks 'Considering enrolling this spring?'. The main text reads 'Sign up now for... FREE TRIAL LESSONS!' with a speech bubble containing two exclamation marks. Below this, it states 'We offer classes for all levels of the Japanese Language Proficiency Test (JLPT)'. At the bottom, it says 'Spring Semester 2025 Free Trial Lesson'. The background shows a woman in a striped shirt looking at a tablet.

The school has been conducting online information sessions for prospective students in preparation for the opening of the Spring 2025 semester. The information sessions have been held at different times to take into account time zones around the world.

However, addressing all time zones and accommodating students' diverse needs with only two information sessions poses a challenge. The school has received feedback from prospective students unable to attend due to scheduling conflicts or those seeking a slower-paced explanation, particularly non-native English speakers. Consequently, the school opted to release a YouTube video of the initial information session to broaden accessibility and allow more individuals to experience the allure and ambiance of AOJ Language School.

In the video, the school explains about AOJ Language School, its curriculum, school schedule, course outline, enrollment information and enrollment campaign. They will also answer questions directly from participants at the information session. Those who watch the information session video are always welcome to ask questions via e-mail or inquiry form posted on our website.

Please refer to their website for detailed information and application for admission. Requests for information materials and questions about the school can also be made through the website.
