

IMBIBE LIFESTYLES' AWARD-WINNING PEARL PILLOW RATED #1 FOR NECK PAIN MAKES HIGHLY ANTICIPATED AMAZON.COM DEBUT

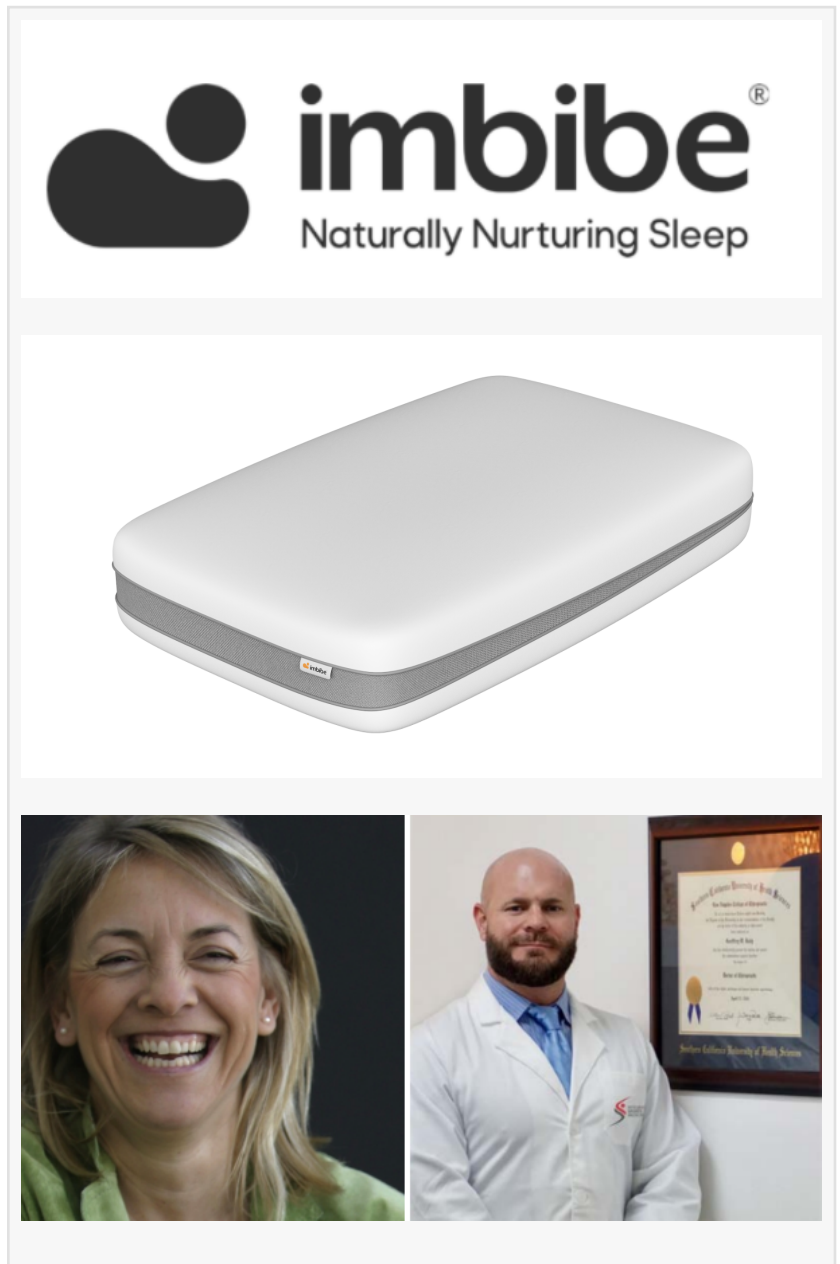

BOCA RATON, FL, UNITED STATES, March 18, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Following weeks of glowing celebrity reviews, the much-anticipated Pearl Pillow, developed by Imbibe Lifestyles, is now live on Amazon.com.

"Our Amazon debut is an exciting move forward for our company," said Michealene Cristini Risley, Imbibe Lifestyles CEO and Co-Founder. "With extensive national and international reach, we can now get our innovative and proven sleep solution to an expansive new demographic of customers."

Rated 2025's #1 pillow for neck pain by leading chiropractors and named 'Most Innovative Restorative Sleep-Focused Pillow Brand 2025' by LUXlife, the Pearl's unique design helps properly align the neck and spine, allowing the body to regenerate and repair strained muscles.

Olympic discus thrower Rachel Dincoff recently posted on Instagram: "Seriously, it might just be the comfiest pillow you'll ever own."

"We are grateful for our recent rise in the celebrity-sphere and subsequent social media momentum," added Risley. "And we are confident that Amazon's reach and ease of use will help keep the Pearl on its upward trajectory."

With a first-of-its-kind, non-toxic polyurethane foam cushion that maintains its shape, the Pearl Pillow is also made of temperature-regulating, double-sided aqua coolant gel lining which guarantees a 'fresh flip' every time. The Pearl's insides are silver and copper-infused, inhibiting the growth of microbes and odor while delivering incredible neck-cradling, spine and shoulder supporting comfort. The Pearl is also hypoallergenic and tucked inside a broad-spectrum, antimicrobial cover that keeps the surface clean.

"The Pearl is the first of a soon-to-be-announced line of trailblazing, doctor-designed pillows," said Risley. "We are very excited for what lies ahead on Amazon and beyond."
