

The Living Urn Continues to Expand Its Industry Leading Cremation Keepsake Line

The company is excited to introduce its new Eternal Stars, handcrafted ceramic star-shaped stones that hold a small amount of a loved one's ashes.

GREENWOOD VILLAGE, CO, UNITED STATES, March 18, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Living Urn, a division Biolife, LLC, is excited to announce that it continues to expand its industry leading cremation keepsake line with its new Eternal Stars ceramic stones.

Eternal Stars are beautiful comforting reminders of the loved ones we've lost. These handcrafted ceramic star-shaped stones can be filled with a small portion of a loved one's ashes and cherished in your own special way – take them with you wherever you go, and wherever you'd like! Their small size, natural design, and smooth surface make them fit comfortably in the palm of your hand and the cracked look only adds to their beauty.

Based on the unique look and feel of the Eternal Stars, we expect these will also be popular among families and our funeral home partners worldwide.”

Mark Brewer, company President, commented, “With the quick adoption we’re seeing of our recently introduced Cuddle Stones, we’re excited to now offer more cremation stone options for families to choose from. Based on the unique look and feel of the Eternal Stars, we expect these will also be popular among families and our funeral home partners worldwide.”

Brewer continues, “We continue to focus on growing our urn and keepsake lines to give families even more unique memorial options to choose from. In addition to the new Eternal Star keepsakes introduced today, we will be announcing additional new and unique urns and keepsakes in the next few weeks that we expect will also be well received."

Eternal Stars are now available online and at a funeral home near you.
