“We value our healthcare partners who are actively working to enhance healthcare competence through education and training. Cultural awareness training for providers assists in reducing or eliminating barriers to care,” said Dr. Tina Atherall, CEO of PsychArmor.

At Compassion Behavioral Health, we recognize that the experiences of military personnel and their families are unique. Our specialized Veteran program is designed to address the specific challenges, strengths, and needs of Veterans while ensuring the delivery of evidence-based therapeutic interventions. By obtaining the Veteran Ready Certification, CBH is dedicated to creating a supportive, informed, and culturally competent environment where Veterans can receive the highest level of care.

"Providing high-quality, trauma-informed care for Veterans is at the core of our mission," said Ryan Needle, CEO of Compassion Behavioral Health. "Through this partnership with PsychArmor, our team is better equipped to understand the military community's unique experiences and provide the specialized support they deserve."

As a nationally recognized nonprofit leader and preferred training provider for military cultural awareness, PsychArmor serves members of the military-connected community and anyone looking to engage with them more effectively. Their team of clinical psychologists and social workers, all deeply rooted in military culture, develop comprehensive training programs, including online courses, curricula, podcasts, webinars, live speaking engagements, and social media content.
