Kibou Support Sake Awards 2025

Support Sake follows the inspiring journeys of Raechel Kadoya and Seiko Kimchichi, two women from different backgrounds united by natural disasters. Their story celebrates sisterhood, transcending language and cultural barriers, with The Falling Doves' music serving as a powerful backdrop that underscores themes of resilience and unity.

“

Join me in making this movement global! Through music, art, and sake. Don't miss out on the film, the concert, and the shows! See you at the Kibou Sake Awards on April 3rd at Milky Way Shibuya.”

Raechel Kadoya

As part of their Japan tour, The Falling Doves will perform at various venues in Tokyo, Yokosuka, and Zushi, participating in screenings of Support Sake. This collaboration reflects the band's commitment to supporting communities affected by disaster and spreading a message of hope and recovery.

The tour will feature the band's founding members and current lineup, delivering an unforgettable experience with new renditions of classic hits and a special album of rarities and singles to commemorate their decade-long career.

Known for their electrifying rock sound and glam vibe, The Falling Doves have been making waves since their formation in Hollywood, California. With influences from iconic mentors like Phil Solemn (the Rembrandts), the late Scott Weiland (Stone Temple Pilots), and Pete Best (the Beatles), they have shared the stage with notable acts including Echo & The Bunnymen, Peter Murphy (Bauhaus), and the Dandy Warhols.

After their performances in Japan, The Falling Doves will kick off the Philippines leg of their tour at the Hard Rock Cafe Manila. The Hard Rock Hotel brand has been an integral part of the band's identity since 2015, hosting over 25 appearances worldwide. The Philippines tour will serve as a fitting conclusion to their international journey, allowing fans to experience the band's electrifying performances while celebrating the spirit of community and resilience reflected in Support Sake.
