BIRMINGHAM, UNITED KINGDOM, March 19, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- UK R&B artist Hazlewood is back with his highly anticipated second studio album, Poetry in Motion, set for release on Friday, 21st March 2025, under AEC Music. Following the success of his debut album Inconspicuous, which climbed to No. 4 on the UK iTunes R&B Album Chart, Hazlewood is proving once again why he is one of the most compelling voices in British R&B today.

Hazlewood: A Defining Force in UK R&B

Robert Peter Bushell, known as Hazlewood, is a UK R&B artist born in Birmingham. He began his career with "Ocean" in 2019 and gained recognition with "YOU" in 2022, which charted at No. 16 on the UK iTunes R&B Chart. His singles "I Like It" peaked at No. 9, and "Convenient" reached No. 6, marking his first entry into the UK iTunes Official Top 200 at No. 140.

In 2024, Hazlewood released his debut album, Inconspicuous, which peaked at No. 4 on the UK iTunes R&B Album Chart. Later that year, he released "Sex You Up," which charted at No. 3 on the UK iTunes R&B Chart and reached No. 120 on the UK iTunes Official Chart. His follow-up releases, "Golden," "Sex You Up," and "Affection," continued his rise, with "Affection" reaching No. 8 on the UK iTunes R&B Chart.

In 2025, Hazlewood releases his sophomore album, Poetry in Motion, featuring "Sex You Up" and "Affection." His momentum continues further expanding his influence in the UK R&B scene.

A Look Inside Poetry in Motion

Recorded over ten days in Bangkok, the album is a deeply personal and evolving body of work.
