International Inc., a global leader in international sales and marketing, is pleased to announce a new export agreement with Black & Black Surgical, Inc., a premier manufacturer of high-quality plastic surgery instruments, microsurgery instruments, liposuction cannulas & equipment, surgical headlights, and light sources. This strategic collaboration will expand Black & Black Surgical's distribution across Dominican Republic, Colombia, Venezuela, Ecuador, Peru, Costa Rica, Panama, Guatemala, Honduras, and El Salvador, providing advanced surgical solutions to healthcare professionals and surgical centers in these key markets.

Under this agreement, Dorian Drake will oversee international sales, marketing, and distribution, ensuring that surgeons and medical professionals in Latin America gain access to Black & Black Surgical's precision instruments and cutting-edge surgical equipment. From state-of-the-art liposuction systems and cannulas to high-performance surgical lighting solutions, this partnership is set to enhance medical procedures and patient outcomes with premium technology. The partnership also aims to meet the demands of plastic and reconstructive surgeons, cosmetic specialists, and healthcare institutions in these select markets.

"We are excited to collaborate with Dorian Drake to bring our innovative surgical instruments and advanced equipment to a broader international audience," said Tim Black, vice president at Black & Black Surgical, Inc. "Our mission is to equip surgeons with the highest-quality instruments and technology, and this agreement allows us to achieve that in more countries throughout Latin America."

Ed Dorian, president of Dorian Drake International, added, "Black & Black Surgical is synonymous with quality, innovation, and reliability in the surgical field. Their extensive line of precision instruments and technologically advanced surgical equipment is a perfect fit with our expanding portfolio. We look forward to introducing these industry-leading solutions to our international network of distributors and healthcare providers."
