This highly anticipated event, now in its 32nd year, is hosted by Conico Oil/McValley Oil Co.; Mission Produce; Element Logic/Transpro Logistics; Nevers, Palazzo, Packard, Wildermuth & Wynner, PC; and the Van Huisen Family.

"We couldn't be more excited for this year's Angels Wine, Food & Brew Festival," said Carrie L. Hughes, Chief Development Officer, Casa Pacifica. "Year after year, this event continues to bring together our incredible community of sponsors, volunteers, and exhibitors who make it all possible. Their generous support ensures not only an unforgettable festival experience but also helps fund the essential work we do for at-risk children and families in our community."

Voted the Best Food & Drink Festival and Best Charity Event for the past 13 years, the Angels Wine, Food & Brew Festival brings together the pinnacle of talent of Ventura County's food and wine scene, including renowned restaurateurs, chefs, vinters and breweries. Owners, chefs and artisans will be on hand to pour, serve and interact with attendees, making the Festival one of the most personal and convenient ways to discover the region's delicious bounty.

Admission includes access to a diverse selection of delicious food, premium wines and tasty craft brews from more than 100 exhibitors, along with live all-day entertainment. In addition to indulging in top-tier culinary offerings, guests can explore an exciting silent auction featuring an array of unique experiences, including luxury travel packages, spa retreats, exclusive sports memorabilia and other one-of-a-kind items.

Attendees can also enjoy the popular Yummie Culinary Competition, which pits top chefs against one another in a blind tasting competition judged by media personalities, food and wine editors and chefs. Judges crown winners for the best of two categories – Savory and Sweet – based on flavor, presentation, innovation and quality.

The Angels Wine, Food & Brew Festival is Casa Pacifica's largest annual fundraiser and supports the agency's life-changing mental health programs for children, young adults and families in Ventura County and beyond.
