

Hey Bubba! Very first Agentic Voice AI for Owner Operators and Small Fleets, Bubba AI is a True AI Dispatcher

Hey Bubba AI can call, email, or text Brokers and Shippers to negotiate freight, verify rate con, and book appointments all using AI for truckers

AUSTIN, TX, UNITED STATES, March 25, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Hey Bubba is proud to announce the official launch of Bubba AI, the industry's first-ever Voice AI Dispatcher designed exclusively for owner-operators and small fleets. Bubba AI allows trucking businesses to run their authority independently, handling everything from finding loads to back-office operations—all powered by AI. There are many Agentic solutions in the market built for Brokers or Shippers, but Hey Bubba is purpose-built only for truckers. Now you as an Owner Operator or Small Fleet have an AI solution of your own.

Hey Bubba AI

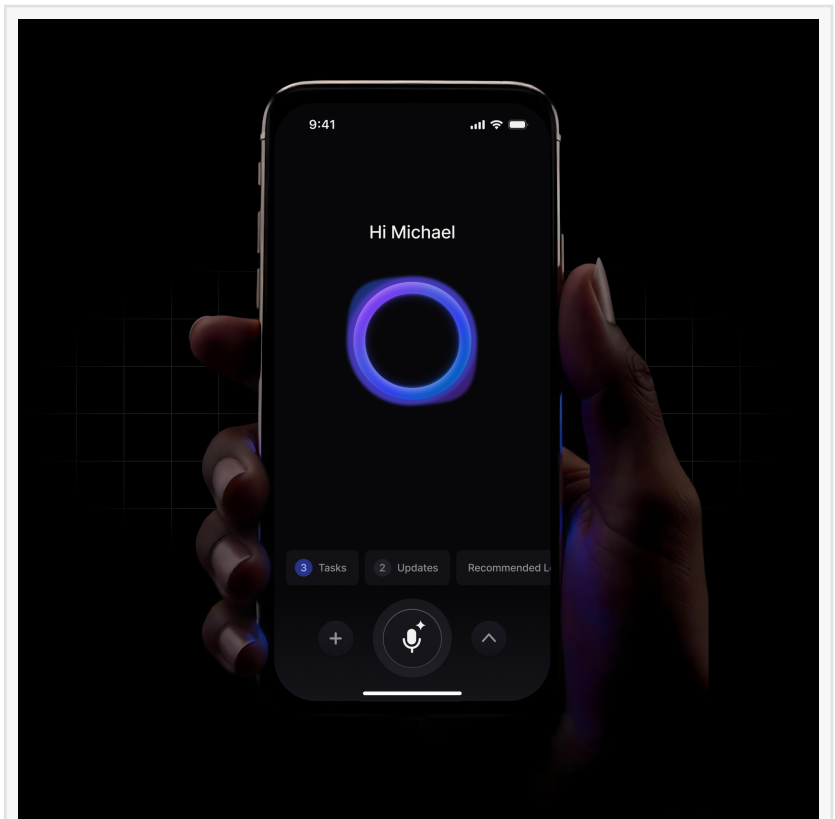

With its voice-first mobile app, Bubba AI enables truckers to speak naturally in any language, while Bubba communicates with brokers and shippers in white-collar English slang. Making seamless communication between blue-collar hard-working truckers and white-collar brokers and shippers behind the desk.

- AI Finds loads
- AI Calls brokers and shippers
- AI Negotiates rates via phone, email, or text
- AI Validates rate confirmations
- AI Books shipping appointments

□ AI Manages back-office tasks like invoicing and paperwork

"We created Bubba AI to be the ultimate AI-powered dispatcher—one that understands truckers and works for them 24/7," said Tapan Chaudhari, Founder and CEO of Hey Bubba Inc. "Owner-operators and small fleets now have an AI solution that helps them operate independently, eliminating inefficiencies and boosting profitability. Hey Bubba! is designed from my decade of experience working with Owner Operators."

"With Hey Bubba, we are redefining the way dispatching works—for the first time bringing AI into the hands of a truck driver. The biggest challenge is how to encapsulate complex Agentic AI systems in a beautifully designed interface in the truck driver's hands" adds Clarissa Luttmann, Co-Founder and Chief Product Officer.

Just say Hey Bubba!

To celebrate the launch, Hey Bubba is offering 3 months of free access to all new users who sign up with their DOT-registered email at <https://app.Bubba.Ai>.

For the First time Hey Bubba brings the power of AI into the hands of Owner Operator and Small Fleet with Bubba AI, the True AI Dispatcher!"
