“Pharmacists are finally being more widely recognized for the safe, effective, and convenient services they are able provide,” said CPESN USA Executive Director Troy Trygstad, Pharm.D., MBA, Ph.D. “The next frontier is to scale the provision of services and make them operational and sustainable. That begins with the credentialing of thousands of pharmacist-providers in the most frequented healthcare setting in America – community-based pharmacies. Pharmacy Profiles will enable a more effective and efficient onboarding of pharmacist-providers into health plan billing systems in a manner resembling every other health care team member. It is long overdue."

"We are pleased to support CPESN USA in enhancing the pharmacist's role in providing patient care services," said Pharmacy Profiles Executive Director, Mark Pilkington. "We offer the most comprehensive, continually updated and verified inventory of advanced credentials in the market. We are excited that CPESN USA will be able to utilize this information to differentiate the services of its network and expand their pharmacies' scope of professional practice."
