The event was hosted by Emma, an adoptive parent who worked with Adoption Options to welcome her son in 2020 and is currently in the process of adopting a second child through the organization.

The sold-out attendance demonstrates the strong sense of community that surrounds our work and mission.”

“Events like our Paint n Sip create spaces where our community can come together in a relaxed, joyful environment,” said Megan McLean, Executive Director at Adoption Options. “As an organization focused on building families and supporting permanent connections, these gatherings reflect our core values and strengthen the bonds between everyone in our extended community.”

The afternoon featured guided painting instruction, refreshments, and opportunities for attendees to share experiences and build relationships in a supportive setting. Proceeds from the event will support Adoption Options' programs, including services for birth parents, adoptive families, and children in need of permanent homes.

"We're thrilled with the overwhelming response to this event," said Brienna Martin, executive assistant. "The sold-out attendance demonstrates the strong sense of community that surrounds our work and mission."

Adoption Options has served Colorado families for over 40 years, providing inclusive services that promote choice, safety, stability, and growth. The organization is committed to finding permanent homes for children while supporting all members of the adoption triad throughout their journey.

Community members interested in learning about future events can follow Adoption Options on social media or sign up for the organization's newsletter at www.adoption-options.com/newsletter.
