“The Porsche brand never seems to lose its value in the classic car market. And although interest never seems to change, the value of these incredible luxury sports cars does,” stated Douglas Berry, the visionary founder of Dusty Cars. “It’s always a good idea to receive an updated classic Porsche appraisal when one is ready to sell, this is especially true for Porsche 912s.”

Classic Porsche owners and enthusiasts can review the new content for a Porsche 912 valuation at <https://dustycars.com/restoration-projects/1967-porsche-912-coupe/>. The 912 model was manufactured from 1965 to 1969. In the 1960s, Porsche was known for being an entry-level four-cylinder production modeled after the Porsche 911. The Porsche company designed the 912 model to be a more affordable option for the general population. It is estimated that around 15,372 Porsche 912 are still in use. The 912E was produced from 1975 through 1976 and is considered the most comfortable version of the 912.

Dusty Cars is a professional appraisal, buyer, and re-seller of classic luxury cars. The Dusty Cars team travels throughout California and the United States to Appraise and provide professional cash offers for classic sports car brands, including Porsche, Jaguar, Austin-Healey, Ferrari, and Lamborghini.

The value of a classic Porsche 912 may be more than the car appears. A Dusty Cars valuation can consider several factors before submitting a final decision. Details include make and model, year, rarity, history, and unique features. Individuals should be ready for cash offers made on-the-spot.

Porsche enthusiasts interested in the 912 model can visit the Dusty Cars website to review current inventory at <https://dustycars.com/makes/porsche/912-for-sale/>. The public is encouraged to reach out to the Dusty Cars team for a Facetime call to schedule a Porsche 912 valuation.
