of wonder and awe through every note. "A Meravilha" continues in the tradition of Caligiuri's earlier works, such as "Vott'a venì," "Samba do amor," and "As ondas do mar." His ability to transport listeners into emotional landscapes without the use of words is truly unparalleled, creating a transcendent experience with only the richness of instrumental music.

In "A Meravilha," Ninni showcases his skills as both a composer and a performer. The song features classical guitars at its heart, arranged and played by the artist himself. The intricate fingerpicking and expressive melodies create a rich, intimate atmosphere, reflecting the beauty of world music while drawing on cinematic influences to build a sweeping emotional landscape.

This instrumental piece marks a return to the heartfelt and evocative style that Ninni has become known for. Like his previous compositions—"Vott'a venì", "Samba do amor", and "As ondas do mar"—"A Meravilha" explores the power of music to convey deep emotions. The song's blend of classical guitar and Waltz-inspired elements transports listeners into a world of reflection and wonder, where every note resonates with longing and beauty.
