DARIEN, CT, UNITED STATES, March 25, 2025
/EINPresswire.com/ -- Top Prizes Include a Selmer Saxophone Plus Thousands of Dollars in Grants

High school musicians have one more week to enter The Annual "Gerry Mulligan Jazz Challenge." This year, high school musicians are being asked to upload their video playing one of Gerry Mulligan's most famous compositions, "Etude for Franca." In addition to lead sheets for students, there will also be charts (for every instrument) and an educational video available for teachers – for free. Submissions must be received by TUESDAY, April 1, 2025. Winners will be announced on April 6 in honor of Jazz Appreciation Month and Gerry's birthday.

The grand-prize winner will receive a NEW Selmer saxophone. The Foundation will also award thousands of dollars in grants to ten high school musicians.

NEW in 2025: This year, the top high school band director with the most student submissions will also be awarded a NEW Selmer saxophone.

Saxophonist Alexa Tarantino, a professional musician and scholarship recipient from the Gerry & Franca Mulligan Foundation adds, "Gerry Mulligan's Jazz Challenge is an incredible platform for students to study Gerry's legacy! For students to have free access to his music and a platform to share their performance is truly a one-of-a-kind opportunity, and it's a testament to Gerry and Franca Mulligan's commitment to inspiring and educating the next generation of jazz musicians."

While Gerry Mulligan popularized the use of the baritone saxophone as a solo instrument, students can submit “Etude for Franca” on the instrument of their choice. High school musicians must upload their recorded video on YouTube and share the link in their entry form at www.gerryandfrancamulliganfoundation.org. A team of professional musicians will judge high school musicians on sound, technique, intonation and presentation. Foundation officials say judges must see hands during the YouTube performance and it is advised to use good lighting and make a short introduction.

Franca Mulligan, President of the Gerry & Franca Mulligan Foundation says, “This is an exciting time of year for the Foundation because we can introduce a new audience to Gerry’s music. He would be so pleased.”

And while Gerry has adoring admirers worldwide, some of his most famous were Rolling Stones Drummer Charlie Watts who credits Gerry for becoming a musician and Former President Bill Clinton, who said, “No one ever played the horn like he did, and no one ever will.”

The Grand Prize of a Selmer Saxophone - Gerry’s favorite instrument - will be awarded for the best entry. The saxophone is valued at $5,000.
