Learn to follow your child's lead

“

You won't give up on your child. Neither will we.”

Samahria Lyte Kaufman

The Son-Rise Program is known for its unique, child-centered approach, which fosters connection and communication between children and their caregivers. During this five-day event, participants will receive hands-on training from experienced Son-Rise Program professionals, learn how to create customized programs for their children and gain valuable insights into building meaningful relationships.

“This is an amazing opportunity for families and professionals to learn how to work with children with autism,” said Amanda Louison. “We are excited to bring our program back to Sheffield and share our unique approach with the community.”

The Son-Rise Program has helped thousands of families around the world. This in-person parent training in Sheffield is a chance for families to connect, share experiences, and learn from one another.
