

Springboard Enterprises Announces 2025 Women's Health Accelerator Program Cohort

Springboard's Women's Health Accelerator Program serves as a collective voice to drive women's health innovation, investment and research.

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, March 25, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Springboard Enterprises, the world-leading accelerator in advancing women-led innovation, is proud to announce its 2025 Women's Health Accelerator Cohort. This year's group includes 12 innovative companies led by women entrepreneurs working across the women's health landscape, from reproductive health and wellness to digital therapeutics and medical technology.

The Women's Health Accelerator is a curated program designed for women-led companies at the forefront of health innovation. Through high-impact workshops, personalized mentorship, and a powerful community of experts and alumnae, the program helps founders refine their business models, form strategic partnerships, and access growth capital.

"Women's health has long been underrepresented in research, funding, and innovation. Our accelerator exists to change that. By providing tailored guidance, strategic connections, and a powerful community, we're giving these entrepreneurs the support they need to deliver better

The graphic features a light blue background with a grid of 12 circular portraits of women, each with a name and company name below it. The portraits are arranged in three rows of three. In the center, there is a logo for '25 Springboard' and the text '2025 WOMEN'S HEALTH COHORT'. At the bottom, there is a large '25 Springboard ENTERPRISES' logo.
