KrispCall's Presence at INDIASOFT 2025

Over the three days, more than 500 people stopped by the KrispCall booth, and the response was overwhelming. Attendees—ranging from business owners and tech enthusiasts to industry experts—were drawn to live demos showcasing AI-driven solutions, including Power Dialer, Call Monitoring, AI-based call routing, and seamless CRM integrations. The hands-on experience allowed visitors to witness how KrispCall is redefining business telephony, making operations more efficient and customer interactions more seamless.

Forging Meaningful Partnerships

The KrispCall team, led by CEO & Co-Founder Dinesh Silwal, along with Deep Singh (Head of Channel Sales), Manali Jadhav (Channel Sales Manager), and Divyanka Sachdeva (Channel Sales Executive), engaged in insightful conversations with technology leaders and potential partners. A highlight was the valuable connections made with partners such as Zintlr, Wyzard (Round Circle Technologies), and their integration partners Zoho.

Reflecting on the event, Dinesh Silwal, CEO & Co-Founder of KrispCall, shared his thoughts on the experience:

"INDIASOFT 2025 was more than just a showcase—it was an opportunity to connect, collaborate, and co-create the future of business telephony. The energy, curiosity, and engagement from visitors were truly inspiring. Seeing firsthand how KrispCall's AI-powered solutions resonate with businesses worldwide reinforces our commitment to innovation. Meeting the Zoho team and discussing how we can strengthen our existing integrations while exploring future opportunities was an exciting moment for us. These conversations, along with meeting our partners and planning future integrations, made this experience even more rewarding. The partnerships we initiated here mark the beginning of exciting new opportunities," shared Dinesh Silwal, Co-CEO & Founder of KrispCall.

Beyond live demos, the excitement at the KrispCall booth was palpable. The KrispCall team was thrilled to engage with so many enthusiastic business leaders and technology innovators who shared their vision for the future. The buzz of collaboration, the exchange of fresh ideas, and the opportunity to explore new integrations left them more motivated than ever. It was more than just an event—it was an inspiring reminder of why they do what they do.
