A key highlight of Serrala’s presence was the session by a customer in the Oil and Gas industry that has realized substantial gains in accounts payable automation through the implementation of AI-powered capture technology and a self-service supplier portal. Attendees gained insights into how the company was able to achieve dramatic improvements in invoice capture accuracy, which eliminated tedious manual processing tasks and maximized automated posting rates. The company has been able to leverage the real-time invoice data available in the Serrala solution to gain visibility and control over supplier spending and address the challenges of rapidly integrating new suppliers and managing increasing invoice volumes.

Serrala presented at two other sessions at the event which were well attended and prompted further discussions with their on-site experts. One session demonstrated how the integration of Microsoft Teams with SAP can revolutionize financial workflows and boost productivity through faster approvals, real-time data access, and AI-driven insights. A second session provided practical strategies for managing data and documents to simplify and reduce the costs associated with the migration to SAP S/4HANA.
