Strengthening Advisory Capabilities

The appointment of Miriam Kaplan as CAS Practice Leader underscores Duffy Kruspodin's dedication to evolving beyond traditional accounting and compliance services. With an initial focus on accounting and fractional financial leadership services, the CAS Practice Leader will leverage cutting-edge technology and tailored business transformation strategies to help clients enhance operational efficiencies, streamline financial processes, and lay the foundation for expanded financial advisory and BPO services that drive long-term growth.

Miriam will work closely with clients to implement financial solutions that drive business success.

"I'm excited to join this forward-thinking team," said Miriam Kaplan, MBA, CPA. "There's a real opportunity to deliver future-ready financial solutions for our clients."

New Leadership to Drive Firm Growth

Miriam is an accomplished leader with deep expertise in financial management, reporting, and strategic advisory, driving profitability, operational efficiency, and long-term business growth for clients. With a proven track record servicing clients successfully in a number of industries, Miriam brings valuable experience in helping businesses transform their financial and operational models.

“We are thrilled to welcome Miriam Kaplan, MBA, CPA to the firm,” said Mark Kruspodin, CPA/PFS, Managing Partner at Duffy Kruspodin. “Miriam’s leadership, innovative approach, and dedication to client success are invaluable as we continue striving toward our vision of becoming the ultimate advisory partner for our clients. By aligning her expertise with our mission, we further enhance our ability to provide impactful financial strategies and services that empower businesses to achieve greater efficiency, profitability, and growth.”

By integrating Miriam’s deep expertise, Duffy Kruspodin strengthens its advisory bench and leadership team to further support evolving client needs and expand its market presence.
