Effortless Funding

Interac e-Transfer remains the most popular funding method by far for MyBTC.ca users, thanks to its convenience and security. If you're sending money to purchase BTC or ETH to HODL in your personal wallet, trading or swapping coins for alternative digital assets or making online purchases, the same intuitive process applies when funding your MyBTC.ca account. Our auto-accept intelligence eliminates unnecessary waiting periods, ensuring that deposits are processed with speed and ease — usually in just five minutes.

Key Features of MyBTC.ca's Smart Auto-Accept Intelligence:

- Lightning-Fast Processing: Deposits are accepted automatically, reducing wait times and getting Bitcoin into your wallet faster.

- Familiar & Trusted Payment Method: Users can fund their accounts using Interac e-Transfer, a process most Canadians already know and trust.

- Minimal Touchpoints for Efficiency: Fewer manual steps mean users can complete transactions quickly without delays.

- High Daily Limits: Need to buy in bulk? Our platform supports high daily and weekly transaction limits.

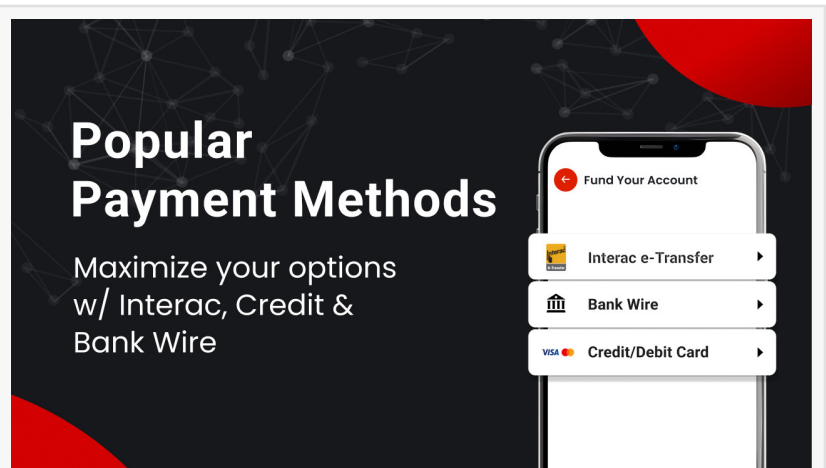

- 24/7 Customer Support: Have questions about Interac e-Transfer funding? Our friendly and knowledgeable team is available anytime to help.

A Frictionless Experience for Canadian Crypto Traders

Gone are the days of waiting hours for transaction approvals. With MyBTC.ca's enhanced funding process, users can easily add MyBTC.ca as a recipient in their online banking, copy and paste the necessary details, and send their funds confidently — knowing they'll arrive either instantly or within 30 minutes exactly, depending on the bank.

For those needing higher transaction limits, users can request an Interac e-Transfer limit increase from their bank, ensuring they never miss a buying opportunity. In addition, MyBTC.ca clients can send Interac e-Transfers from multiple bank accounts to add even more buying power. And if banking limits pose a challenge, MyBTC.ca's support team is ready to provide solutions that align with your crypto buying goals.
