A New Era of Artist-Fan Interaction

DropWorks enables electronic music artists to take control of their careers and engage with their fanbase in new and meaningful ways. Through a seamless blend of music collaborations, ownerships management, dynamic royalty distributions, and direct fans ownerships, DropWorks creates an all-in-one space for artists to connect with fans, build stronger communities, and enhance the value and revenue of their music.

Pioneering Artists Join the Movement

As part of its debut, DropWorks is thrilled to announce partnerships with a select group of top-tier electronic music artists, including VINNE, Angemi, Sevek, Burnr, and HeyDoc!.

- VINNE – A Brazilian DJ and producer known for his collaborations with Hardwell and high-energy performances at major festivals. VinnelG
- Angemi – An Italian DJ and producer renowned for his dynamic remixes and infectious tech-house beats. AngemilG
- SEVEK – A rising star in the bass house scene from Brazil, gaining international recognition with hits like “Move Your Body.”
- BURNR – A tech-house prodigy from the Netherlands, blending classic and contemporary sounds with high-octane energy.
- HeyDoc! – A Brazilian DJ and music producer known for his contributions to the house music scene.

These five artists are among the first to embrace DropWorks, helping shape its vision and setting the standard for what's possible for electronic music artists and their fans.

Innovative Features for Artists and Fans

DropWorks provides a robust suite of features designed to support every aspect of an artist's career while enhancing fan involvements:

- Music Collaborations – Empower music producers, beatmakers, lyricists, vocalists, artwork designers, curators, labels, and publishers to collaborate on a track online. Artists and fans can interact seamlessly, fostering discovery and creative synergy.
- Ownerships Management – Transform music track ownership into 6,000 DropStocks, a system compatible with major royalty platforms, ensuring easy and transparent dynamic music track ownership.
- Dynamic Royalty Distributions – Automate royalty payouts through direct payments to DropStock holders, ensuring fair and accurate earnings under a dynamic music ownership structure.
- Direct Fans Ownerships – For the first time in music history, fans can own a piece of a music track, whether as a collectible or for value preservation, offering an unprecedented connection to their favorite artists.

About DropWorks

DropWorks is a next-generation platform dedicated to elevating the music industry from its analog roots to a fully digital future. By offering groundbreaking tools for music collaborations, ownerships management, dynamic royalty distributions, and direct fans ownerships, DropWorks empowers artists and music lovers with collaborations, visibilities, monetization and values creations under the new digital landscape of the music world.
