

Texas Trial Attorney and Philanthropist Thomas J. Henry Proudly Sponsors ABC Kite Festival 2025

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, March 26, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Thomas J. Henry, nationally recognized for his commitment to personal injury clients and their communities, is excited to announce his sponsorship for the upcoming ABC Kite Festival in Austin, Texas. The highly anticipated event will take place on April 5th, 2025 at Zilker Park, bringing the Austin community together for a day of family-friendly fun, colorful kites, and entertainment.

Having been a proud sponsor of the ABC Kite Festival for several years, Thomas J. Henry is excited to be part of this beloved Austin tradition once again, reaffirming his commitment to community involvement and local events that bring people together. The ABC Kite Festival, one of Austin's oldest traditions, features a spectacular display of creativity as thousands of kites take to the sky in a vibrant celebration of the Spring season. From kite contests to live music and interactive activities, the festival offers something for everyone in the family.

As part of its sponsorship, Thomas J. Henry Law will have a booth at the event where attendees can receive free branded items, learn more about the firm's services, and interact with the team. The firm's ongoing involvement in the festival highlights its dedication to fostering connections and creating a positive impact within the Austin community.

Additionally, Thomas J. Henry Law is hosting an exciting social media giveaway with a chance to win a trip to Greece. Stay tuned on the firm's social media platforms for details on how to enter this amazing giveaway!

The ABC Kite Festival is one of the largest free kite festivals in the country, attracting thousands of visitors each year. It provides an opportunity for people of all ages to gather, celebrate, and enjoy the beauty of kite flying, all while experiencing the best of Austin's outdoor culture.
