Legacy Makers is a cinematic docu-series that spotlights entrepreneurs and change-makers by capturing their personal and professional journey. This unique TV show hosted by Rudy Mawer features top names such as Carmen Electra and many more to be announced soon.

In her episode, Rosie will discuss her evolution from a top-tier real estate professional to the founder of MsREMAX Inc., DivorceHome.com, and Gary's Wish Foundation—three powerful initiatives aimed at reshaping industries and providing support where it's needed most. With a strong background in real estate, business innovation, and philanthropy, Rosie's story is a testament to perseverance, adaptability, and turning challenges into opportunities.

"I believe that life's struggles are meant to shape us, not break us. Every setback I've faced has led me to build something that serves a greater purpose," Rosie shares in her episode.

As a Certified Divorce Real Estate Expert (CDREE), Rosie recognized the emotional and logistical challenges of divorce and created DivorceHome.com, Canada's first divorce resource marketplace. The platform is dedicated to helping individuals navigate the complexities of separation with access to real estate solutions, legal guidance, and mental health support.

Rosie's entrepreneurial spirit also led to the creation of MsREMAX, a pioneering global real estate network showcasing and empowering women in the industry. This elite community connects high-achieving female realtors across international markets, fostering collaboration, mentorship, and business expansion.

In honor of her late friend's passion for helping the homeless, Rosie launched Gary's Wish Foundation, which partners with landscaping companies to provide job opportunities for those in need. This initiative is dedicated to restoring dignity, stability, and purpose to individuals experiencing homelessness, reinforcing Rosie's commitment to social impact.
