

A' Landscape Planning and Garden Design Award Announces Final Call for Last Entries

Distinguished International Design Competition Welcomes Last Submissions from Global Landscape Design Community until March 30, 2025

COMO, CO, ITALY, March 26, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The A' Landscape Planning and Garden Design Award, a highly regarded international design competition established in 2008, announces its final call for last entries.

This prestigious accolade celebrates excellence in landscape architecture, garden design, and urban planning through a comprehensive evaluation process. The competition stands as a significant platform for recognizing outstanding achievements in landscape design, offering participants an opportunity to showcase their innovative approaches on an international stage.

The award holds particular significance in today's rapidly evolving urban landscape, where sustainable and thoughtful design solutions are increasingly crucial. Previous laureates have demonstrated exceptional creativity and innovation, including Jiangsu Architectural Landscape Design for their Yichang Riverside Park Public Spaces, and Kaizentopia Company Limited for the Ten Six Hundred Riverside Boutique Hotel. These projects exemplify how landscape design can positively transform communities while addressing environmental challenges.

Submissions are welcomed across multiple categories, including public park designs, residential garden designs, urban landscape designs, and botanical garden designs. The competition accepts entries from landscape designers, urban planners, municipalities, and design companies worldwide. Projects completed within the past decade are eligible for consideration, with submissions requiring high-resolution images and comprehensive project documentation. The last entry period remains open until March 30, 2025, with results to be announced on May 1st, 2025.

Entries undergo evaluation through a blind peer-review process by an international jury panel comprising academics, journalists, and industry professionals. The assessment criteria encompass innovation, sustainability, aesthetic appeal, functionality, and social impact. Each submission receives thorough consideration based on established metrics, ensuring a fair and transparent evaluation process.

Winners receive comprehensive recognition through the A' Design Prize package, which includes the prestigious winner logo license, exhibition opportunities, and inclusion in the annual yearbook. Laureates gain extensive international exposure through targeted PR campaigns, media coverage, and participation in the exclusive gala-night ceremony at Lake Como, Italy.

The A' Landscape Planning and Garden Design Award serves a vital role in advancing the field of landscape design by recognizing and promoting projects that enhance public spaces, improve environmental sustainability, and contribute to community well-being. Through celebrating excellence in landscape design, the award aims to inspire innovations that create more livable, sustainable, and aesthetically pleasing environments for future generations.

Landscape designers, urban planners, municipalities, and design companies are invited to participate in this prestigious competition. The last submission period presents a final opportunity for design professionals to gain international recognition for their outstanding work in landscape architecture and garden design.
