

GPT Pricing Partners with Hostaway to Offer Comprehensive Revenue Management Solutions to Large-Scale Operators

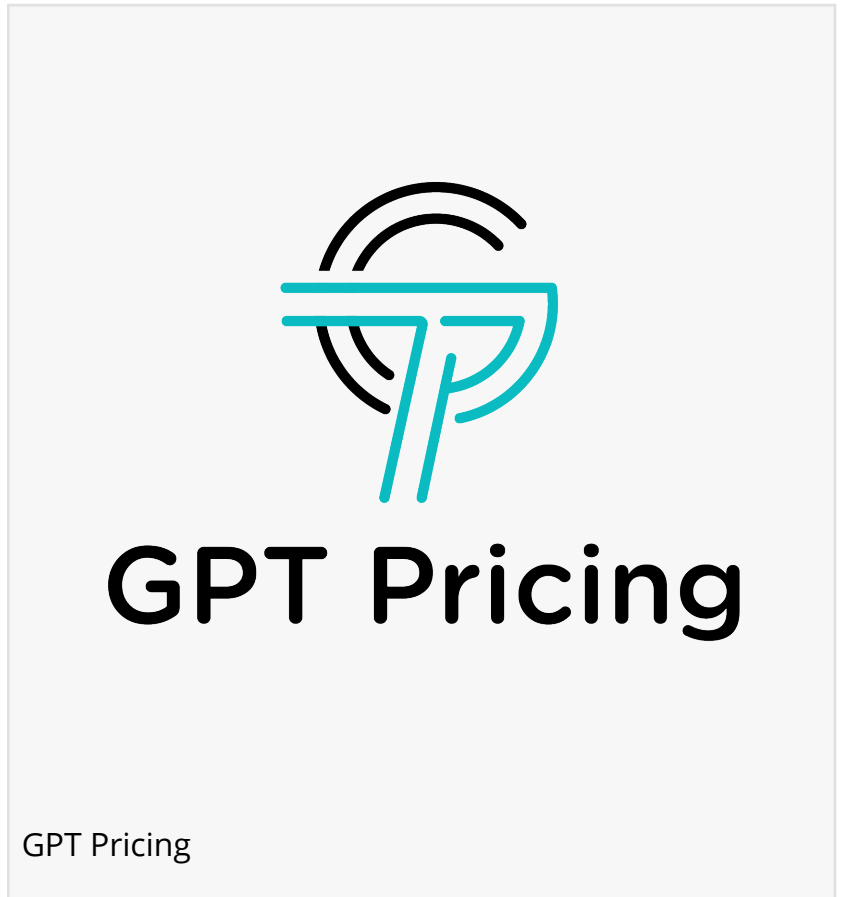

GPT Pricing, a leading AI-driven revenue management consultancy, is pleased to announce its integration with Hostaway.

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, March 26, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- GPT Pricing, a premier AI-driven revenue management consultancy for large-scale short-term rental operators, today announced a strategic integration and marketplace partnership with Hostaway, a leading vacation rental management platform. This partnership brings GPT Pricing's sophisticated revenue optimization and consultancy services directly to Hostaway's extensive network of property management companies.

GPT Pricing offers a distinct, enterprise-level approach to revenue management. Unlike standard dynamic pricing tools, GPT Pricing fully manages and executes pricing strategies, leveraging advanced artificial intelligence, predictive analytics, and seasoned industry expertise. Their comprehensive service enables property managers to completely outsource revenue management, ensuring optimal pricing decisions for maximum profitability.

In celebration of this collaboration, GPT Pricing is extending an exclusive three-month complimentary trial of its revenue management algorithm to Hostaway clients. The offer applies to any subset of properties within qualifying portfolios, providing an opportunity to directly experience the powerful impact of GPT Pricing's approach.

Notably, GPT Pricing maintains a specific enterprise focus, requiring partner companies to manage portfolios with a minimum of 100 properties. This ensures tailored solutions designed to effectively address the complexities of managing large-scale rental operations.

We're thrilled to empower Hostaway clients with unmatched revenue optimization."
