

Elevator, New Co-Warehousing Community in Des Moines, Opens April 1 to Support Small Businesses

Innovative co-warehousing space opens Des Moines location offering flexible space, logistics support and community for entrepreneurs with physical products.

DES MOINES, IA, UNITED STATES, March 27, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Elevator, the innovative co-warehousing concept that reimagines workspace solutions for entrepreneurs with physical products, will officially open its doors at its new Des Moines location on Tuesday, April 1st. Located on 12th and Mulberry Street just two blocks from the iconic Pappajohn Sculpture Park, this marks Elevator's second location following its successful Omaha location that is now home to over 100 businesses and 300+ members.

Elevator's Des Moines location features colorful, inspirational murals that reflect its vibrant community spirit.

A Soft Launch celebration will be held April 1st from 4-6pm, featuring guided tours of the space, networking opportunities, gourmet charcuterie boards, and champagne toasts to commemorate this milestone. No RSVP is required for this community celebration.

Elevator will also host a Grand Opening and Ribbon Cutting Ceremony on May 16th. This community-wide celebration will be open to the public and feature live music, food, drinks, and networking opportunities. Attendees can expect a festive atmosphere with activities designed to showcase the vibrant entrepreneurial community that Elevator fosters.

"We're thrilled to open our doors in Des Moines and create a vibrant hub where small businesses can access the space, resources, and community they need to thrive," said Shannon Lerda, Co-Founder and President. "The overwhelmingly positive response we've received confirms that Des Moines entrepreneurs are eager for flexible, supportive environments that address their unique challenges."
