Located at 4000 E Main St., Columbus, OH 43213, this new facility provides 24/7 medical support to ensure a safe and effective detox process.

Residential Withdrawal Management, also known as medically supervised detox, is a crucial first step for individuals struggling with substance use. At Lighthouse, clients receive round-the-clock care from a compassionate medical team, including doctors and nurses who specialize in easing withdrawal symptoms with medications and therapeutic support.
